THE CANCER CENTER

We welcome Mitchell I. Chorost, M.D., F.A.C.S. as the Director of Surgical Oncology and Associate Director of the Cancer Center at New York Hospital Queens.

The Department of Surgery and the Cancer Center of New York Hospital Queens continue to expand the clinical leadership team to provide state of the art and passionate surgical care to the community we serve. Dr. Chorost intends to encourage collaborative work with the hospital's outstanding physicians with an emphasis in clinical trials and research.

Dr. Chorost is an eminent oncologic surgeon who has extensive experience in the treatment of gastrointestinal and liver cancers. He joins us from Maimonides Medical Center where he was the Associate Program Director in the Department of Surgery and Chief of Gastrointestinal Surgical Oncology.

He received his medical degree from University of Medicine and Dentistry, New Jersey and completed his residency in general surgery at the State University of New York at Stony Brook. He completed his fellowship in surgical oncology at the Roswell Park Cancer Institute in Buffalo. In addition to being a board-certified surgeon, he is a fellow of the American College of Surgeons, the Society of Surgical Oncology and the American College of Clinical Oncology.

Dr. Chorost joins us as a member of CRT Associates, the surgical services group at NYHQ.

If you would like to meet and discuss a case with Dr. Chorost, or to have more information on current treatment protocols and our Tumor Board, physicians can contact him at 718-670-1097.
